Appeal No. 29 of 1892-93

Appellant -
Shambhoj Ramaya
of Kibbanahalli
Tiptur Taluk.

On 14th February 1889
the Patel of Kibbenhalli deposed before the Amildar
that Shambhoj Ramaya, Appellant, had cultivated
the Nirsanti Inam land, that the Nirsanti was in the Archa service,
that nobody was doing the Nirsanti work. The Appellant stated that he cultivated the land
as required by the ~~Nirsanti~~ Nirsanti Patta. Corroborated
the Shambhoj. Thereupon
on 20th February 1889
the Dy Comr. of Nirsanti
~~the Nirsanti~~ was ~~in the Archa~~, and suspended the Shambhoj for having cultivated
the land without order.
The Inam was at the same time ordered to be attached with the crop

1 Inam Reclamation
Act

Thereon. The Amildar reported that the Shanbhog was not to blame as he had cultivated the land with the permission of the Patedar. (Bajanti Batta). The Divisional Officer directed the Amildar to carry out orders as regards the suspension of the Shanbhog. Not [illegible] Batta left the Mehé service and resumed his work as Nisanti ...) the same land was restored to him in Bego. Appellant's brother Hanumantaya has been doing the Shanbhog's work. The Appellant requested the Dy Comr that his suspension might be cancelled. On 22 of April 1922 the Dy Comr ordered that as the period of suspension was not specified he could not interfere in the matter.

The appeal is against the above order.

The appellant contends that he is not to blame as he cultivated the land as required by the Patedar.

He stated in his deposition before the Amildar dated 19th February 1889 states that the Dhan land has waste up to & inclusive of the year 1887-88 & that the Dhanbhoj cultivated the land as required by ~~Nisanti~~ Batta on other duty.

The point in issue is whether under the circumstances the Dhanbhoj was right in having cultivated the land without Govt. orders.

Nisanti Batta. This according to his statement in the Amildar's for 3 or 4 years, saying the job of the Dhan land & getting the work of Nisanti done by ~~others~~

~~Under the circumstances of the case, I am~~ ~~consider that~~ the Dhanbhoj ~~is~~ ~~not deserves any punishment~~ was wrong, not in having cultivated the land, but in not having reported to Govt. that the Nisanti was ~~not~~ supposing the Dhan land without rendering service.

For this fault the punishment he has already suffered is more than ample & the Govt. direct that he be restored to office.

The Chief Secretary

to the Government of Mysore

Sir

With reference to your official Memorandum No. 83 of the 4th instant forwarding for submission of proceedings with a report a petition from Shanbogue Ramiah of Kibbanhalli in the Tiptur Taluk praying for the cancellation of the order of his suspension from office for having cultivated a Veergumtee Inam land without permission, I have the honor to submit herewith the record of the case and to state as follows.

2. In February 1889 the Patel of the village having brought to notice that the petitioner had without an order from government tilled the Veergumtee Inam land of the village Veergumtee Betta an enquiry was made - The petitioner that he had tilled the land with the consent of the Neerguntí and the latter admitted having given his consent as he was praying the Jody - But as the Neerguntz was not at the time on his Neergunty duty but employed in the late Arrack Department (one Honna acting for him), the then Deputy Commissioner Mr Krishnamurti Row ordered on the 20th February 1889 that the Canam land should be attached and the produce thereof kept in deposit, that the Neergunty (Betta) should be dismissed as he was not doing the duties of the office but was employed in the Arrack Department, that the Shanbogue who had taken liberty to cultivate the land without permission should be suspended, that the Amildar was to blame for not having taken notice of the matter and that another competent Neergunti should be appointed

3. Accordingly the produce

(paddy and sugarcane) of the land was sold and the amount realized credited to Government after deducting the Jodi amount, and the petitioner was suspended and his younger brother Ramanathan appointed in his stead.

4. Subsequently the Amildar reported that the dismissed Veerapandy had lost his post in the Attache Department on its abolition and solicited sanction to his re-employment as no other competent man could be found for filling his place. He was accordingly reinstated and his Jodi Manu-land restored to him.

5 In April 1892 the petitioner presented a petition to me praying for the cancellation of the order of his suspension. But I stated that I could not interfere with my predecessor's order.

6 The petition received with the memorandum under reply is herewith returned with its enclosures—

Appellant. Vs. Respondent.

Shanbogue Ramaiya
of Kibbanahalli,
Tiptur Taluk.

Decision. 26-8-92.

On 17th February 1883 the Patel of Kibbanahalli deposed before the Amildar that Shanbogue Ramaiya, Appellant, had cultivated the Inigunti Inam land, that the Inigunti Batta was in the Amildar's service, and that nobody was doing the Inigunti work. The Appellant stated that he cultivated the land on behalf of the Inigunti at his request & the Caller ~~by~~ Batta who corroborated the Shanbogue confirmed his statement.

Whereupon on 20th February 1883 the Deputy Commissioner Rao Krishna Swami dismissed the Inigunti Batta, and suspended the Shanbogue for having cultivated the land without orders. The Inam was at the same time ordered to be attached with the crop thereon. The Amildar reported that Sambayya was not to blame as he had cultivated the land with the permission of the Inamdar Ratna.

(AA1A1). The Deputy Commissioner directed the Amildar to carry out orders ~~and~~ changed. ~~quash the suspension of the Sambayya.~~ refused to reconsider the case Ratna left the Amlé service and resumed his work as Surgunti and the Inam land was restored to him in 1870. Appellant's brother Narasimhaiya has been doing the Sambayya work. The Appellant requested the Deputy Commissioner that his suspension might be cancelled. On 22nd April 1872, the Deputy Commissioner Rao Venkata Varadiyar ordered that as the period of suspension was not specified, he could not interfere in the matter.

2 The appeal is against the above order.

3. The appellant contends that he is not to blame as he cultivated the land as required by the Pattadar. The Ryot in his deposition before the Amildar dated 24th February 1892, states that the Inam land was waste up to and inclusive of the year 1887-88, and that the Shanbogue cultivated the land as required by Patta while the latter was on Mere duty.

4. The Government consider that the Shanbogue was wrong, not in having cultivated the land, but in not having reported to Government that the Ryot was enjoying the Inam without rendering service. For this fault the punishment he has already suffered is sufficient and the Government direct that he be restored to office.
